

DESCRIBE A GIFT/PRESENT THAT YOU RECEIVE

So, today I want to talk about a gift/ present that I receive. My mother gives me on my birthday.

Well, I want to describe a smartphone. It's brand – /bren/ name is iPhone X. It is made by Apple company. It has black and white color. It is very small, light and beautiful.

I fancy my smartphone so much because of many reasons.

Firstly, it is very modern – /mo – đầ/ and convenient. It helps me a lot with my work. I know many useful information and knowledge – /no – litch/.

Secondly, I can use smartphone for entertainment and relax and reduce stress. For example, I can listen to music, play games, watch films, go on Facebook and so on

Finally, I can use my smart phone to study English online, chat online with people at the same time and I can keep in touch with my friends.

Part 2:

1 Transportation:

If I have to choose among the three options: train, car and motorbike, I prefer car because of the following reasons.

Firstly, going by car is very convenient for my work as well as traveling. I can go to work every day by my car and I can go anytime and anywhere I want to

Secondly, I can travel with my family members by car and go to the zoo, cinema, shopping centers, club, bar and restaurant

Finally, cars are very easy to drive and I can still go out when it is raining

However, if you go buy train, you have to buy the tickets and with motorbike, it is very dangerous because you can have accidents

In a nutshell, I prefer car more than train and motorbike

2 Technology:

If I have to choose among the three options, I prefer development of air travel because of many reasons.

Firstly, air travel is not only very useful but also convenient for my work and study, I can go by airplane anytime and anywhere

Secondly, it is very fast and safer than other means of transportation, such as: cars, trains, motorbikes

Finally, it takes less time to travel, so I can spend more time with my family members and take care of myself more

In contrast, advances in health care and space exploration need more money to development as well as takes a lot of time

In a nutshell, I prefer development of air more than advances in health care and space exploration
