they	are not (aren't)	=	Họ không là

I am not a teacher (Tôi không là một giáo viên)

- She is not a student (Cô ấy không là một học sinh)
- She isn't a student (Cô ấy không là một học sinh)
- They are not student (Họ không là học sinh)
- They aren't student (Họ không là học sinh)

Câu hỏi: Are / Is + S + danh từ

Ví dụ:

Are you a student? (bạn có phải là học sinh không?)

Are they students?

Is she a student?

Is he a student?

Trả lời : YES: CÓ
NO: KHÔNG

I + am + danh từ

Part 2: Solution Discussion

Nowadays, there are many ways to learn English. Students can study online or go to traditional classes. Which one do you prefer and why? What are the advantages and disadvantages of each way?

I prefer to study online because.

- I can save money and time. The tuition fee for online courses is much lower than in traditional classes. I don't have to take time to travel to class so I save a lot of time for travelling
- It is more convenient when you study online. You can plan your study time easily

- I can avoid traffic jams and other kinds of accidents on road because I don't have to go out

Well, in my opinion, everything has both sides. Learning English in traditional classes can give students face to face interactions with the teachers, however, students have to follow a fixed studying timetable which is hard if they are busy.

On the other hand, studying online can be hard if the Internet connection is bad and students have to be very independent in learning. Personally, I am keen on studying online because firstly I can save money and time. Secondly, it is more convenient when you study online. You can plan your study time easily. Finally, I can avoid traffic jams and other kinds of accidents on road because I don't have to go out
